

Loving Norwegian Bliss!

LAST weekend's Norwegian Bliss inaugural sailing out of Los Angeles included a large contingent from Australia, with travel agents, media and some of the Norwegian Cruise Line team able to experience NCL's newest vessel. The two night 'cruise to nowhere' down the coast of Mexico allowed guests to explore and experience the ship, which boasts a stunning array of bars and restaurants as well as adrenaline-inducing activities and entertainment. These pics were taken during the voyage, with lots more at facebook.com/cruiseweekly.
